Östra Göinge kommun

Rules of conduct for the Östra Göinge libraries and their nearby premises

To give everyone an enjoyable use of the Library, we follow these rules:

- Use a refined language and non-offensive words.
- Adjust your sound level and use a moderate tone of voice. Sound travels easily.
- Put your cell phone on silent mode and take conversations outside.
- When you listen to music or watch movies on your phone/computer, use headphones.
- Put back books, furniture or other objects that you've moved. If you are unsure of the books' placement, put them back on the book trolleys.
- Please throw mugs or other trash in the trash bins provided for the purpose.
- Use of drogs or alcohol is not permitted in or adjacent to the library property.
- Animals are not allowed indoors with the exception of service animals.
- Sleeping is not permitted anywhere on library/Cultural centre property.
- Petitions or soliciting donations is not allowed.
- In case of posting notices, contact the staff.
- Kultur & Fritid are not responsible for unattended personal belongings.

Persons not abiding by these or other library rules may be asked to leave the premises and/or have their library privileges suspended. If you feel the rules are not followed, contact the staff.
